

23rd November 2007

Environmental Action...protect your profits and our planet

Service Network invites you to protect your profits and our planet with, Integration International and the Environment Agency.

Businesses are increasingly expected to demonstrate that they recognise the importance of environmental issues and that their business behaves in an environmentally responsible manner.

Adam Woodhall and Guy Tunnicliff from Integration International, Peter Kerr and Bob Carrick from the Environment Agency will show you how to help your business:

- Reduce costs and improve efficiency
- Meet tender requirements
- Attract and retain clients plus employees
- Create a positive image
- Survive the impacts of climate change

This event is a great opportunity for you to:

- Make significant savings for your business
- Reduce the carbon footprint of your business
- Keep up to date with the impact of environmental issues
- Share experiences and learn from other people
- Take away practical tips to share and implement with your team
- Plan how to adapt to the impacts of climate change on your business

We hope you will be able to join us on the 23rd November, full details and registration instructions are below.
